

Want to learn more about birds? There are many great resources available. One of our favorites is the Cornell Lab's website, allaboutbirds.org, which features a bird guide, a birding ID tool, live cams and much more! You can also pick up one of our recommended bird books by downloading the following list.

---

Books:

Available at Worcester Public Library Main Branch

- Owl Moon by Jane Yolen (ages 3-8, also available on Libby as audiobook)
- Make Way for Ducklings by Robert McCloskey (age 3-7, also available on Libby)
- Owl Babies by Patrick Benson (ages 3-7)
- What it's like to be a bird : from flying to nesting, eating to singing -- what birds are doing, and why David Sibley (teens and family, also available on Libby)

Available in Worcester (not at Main Branch)

- Bird Watch by Christie Matheson (ages 4-8)

Books available through C/W Mars (cwmars.org)

- Ruby's Birds by Mya Thompson (Published by Cornell Lab! ages 3-7)
- Counting Birds: The Idea That Helped Save Our Feathered Friends By Heidi E.Y. Stemple (ages 3-7)
- Bird Count by Susan Edwards (ages 4-8)
- Birding is my Favorite Video Game (teens, also available on Libby)